The Shadewell Shenanigans (The Illmoor Chronicles Book 3)

The images of Sanguine and Arena are projected onto a non-intrusive and non-showy surface: more than a screen, a cloth, with particular characteristics and large dimensions, capable of rendering the details of the images impeccably. The surface is placed very close to the spectators: it exerts an immersive impact and integrates the fascinating structure of the arches combining architecture, historical episodes and realism in an audiovisual production that narrates events with scientific rigor, restoring strong emotions. Yellow is seen before other colors when placed against black; this combination is often used to issue a warning.
