Soziologie aus Trotz. The Prophet of Yonwood. The second part of the argument for exposing medical students to the humanities is the enriching and restorative qualities that the humanities offer to physicians personally, such as can be gained through the use and exploration of literature and the arts. It is refreshing and provokes me to admire love in all it's forms, both earthly and heavenly. I was awestruck by the amount of time and research Chang put into her memoir; even the parts about her grandmother's early life felt rich and compelling even though she obviously wasn't alive to witness it personally.
